Ian Nicolini
Vice President, Economic Development
Indy Chamber

Ian Nicolini serves as the Vice President of Indianapolis Economic Development for the Indy Chamber where he oversees Develop Indy, an economic development organization dedicated to growing Marion County businesses, attracting new business investment, and implementing the Mayor's vision for economic development.

Since joining the Chamber in 2016, Ian has led the Develop Indy Team to complete projects that helped create and retain nearly 46,000 jobs. Ian also oversees the Indy Chamber's inclusive growth agenda. These inclusive growth strategies align the Chamber's business units and partners to implement the economic development, microenterprise, and anchor institution programs that create access to economic mobility.

Ian currently serves on the board of the IndyHub Foundation, Fathers and Families Center and Indy Skate Park Advocates. Prior to joining the Chamber, Ian was the Town Manager in Speedway, Indiana and previously served as an adjunct instructor in public management at IU-Northwest and IUPUI. Ian, his wife Collette, and their daughter Evelyn live in Speedway with their two adopted pit bull terriers.
